Leicestershire Leicester and Rutland Headway
Providing support for people with brain injuries

John Lewis Bonanza

by Alison Leight, Fundraiser

Three cheers for John Lewis! And lots of cheers too for everyone that contributed to their 'Community Matters' scheme.

The resulting donation has enabled us to buy loads of new stuff for our kitchen, and more importantly, it gave us the opportunity to spend huge swathes of time browsing around John Lewis, which was rather lovely! The members are thrilled with our new kit, it'll help them to make even more luscious dishes to take home, and we're all relieved to finally be able to get rid of all our chipped old crockery!

James, (trying to look busy!) in the kitchen!

Special thanks to Charanjit Kotechia for all her patience in organising the donation, cheque and deliveries.

Stan and Melanie

In October, Melanie Whitton and her sister-in-law, Andrea, raised an amazing £760 for us by running the Birmingham half marathon. Melanie is the Sister of Headway member Stan, who has made a fantastic recovery following a motorbike accident over a year ago. Melanie came to visit, not only present us with a cheque, but also to ask us for a 'shopping list' as her employer would like to support us. She works for Levi Strauss, so we're all hoping she might be able to get us a few free samples as well! The girls are still taking donations on their JustGiving page if you want to support them online: www.justgiving.com/melanie-whitton

Willowbrook Party-hearty

'Willowbrook' is a local residential home for people with brain injuries, and the residents decided to have a Hallowe'en party to raise money for us.

With the help of the staff, they made some fantastic cakes and seasonal goodies.

They have lovely modern facilities, and a nice big outdoor space that would be perfect for one of our 'little fetes'. If you would like to find out more about their support services, contact the Manager, Jayne Warwicker on 07843 359018
