Leicestershire Leicester and Rutland Headway
Providing support for people with brain injuries

Mary and Ben go "Head First"

Headway News...

Headway House welcomes three new members, Stephen L, Adam and Daniel.

We would also like to say goodbye and good luck to Lee C and Stephen M who have now moved on to pastures new. Lee was one of our longstanding members of 10 years and he is now volunteering at Brolay Care Farm and Stephen is accessing activities closer to home.

To mark this year's Action for Brain Injury week (12th - 18th May), Services Director Mary, and Support Worker Ben will be jumping out of a plane. No, really!

The brave (or bonkers) pair have teamed up to raise funds for us, and to raise awareness of brain injury - so start saving your pennies because they will need all the support they can get! They would also need lots of kind encouragement, we don't want them to 'bottle out' at the last minute! We, that is: the rest of the team who would never dare jump out of a plane in a million years. We will be there on the day to cheer them on at Langer airfield in Nottinghamshire. The date is not set in stone yet, we will let you know as soon as it is.

Be one of the first to offer your support, and hard cash at:

ACTION FOR BRAIN INJURY WEEK

“HEADING OUT” Bistro Live Report . . .

by Warren

Andy, James and Ricky partying the night away!

Heading Out’s Christmas Party of 2013 at Bistro Live was brilliant and the food we ate was absolutely delicious.

We all thoroughly enjoyed the evening out, the atmosphere was just immense and the entertainment was quite all right too!

A Lucky Strike

It was a case of ‘right place, right time’ when a group of Leicester City first team players visited the General Hospital recently.

Support Worker Alison Maynard and Headway Member Joe just happened to be at the General Hospital’s Younger Disabled Unit when the players were ‘doing the rounds’ of City hospitals just before Christmas. We managed to get some hasty photos and autographs, and this pic appeared on the Foxes’ Twitter page.

Thank you Daniel

We would like to express our thanks and appreciation to our new member, Daniel, who kindly donated a Playstation 3 and games for our Day Centre.
