Headway's 25th Birthday Party

We are sorry to announce that, due to a number of factors, our Millionaire's Ball scheduled for 11 September has been cancelled. It's very disappointing as we hoped that, as well as having a lavish evening of food and entertainment, we would raise some much needed funds.

Unable to let such a special birthday go without celebrating, we have changed the date of our Autumn Fair from Saturday, 26 September and made it into a 25th Birthday Party on Saturday, 19 September which is only 2 days after our actual birthday.

We hope our friends, service users and supporters will come and join us and help us celebrate this special birthday and milestone.

There will be no charge for this event but plenty of opportunities to spend money on our raffle and tombola.

An Apology

In our last eBulletin we said thank you to "Oadby & Wigston Lions" when in fact the donation was from Blaby & District Lions. We did mention Blaby & District Lions in the text and appears on the photograph. We would like to express our sincere apologies for the mix up and thanks again to Blaby & District Lions for their £300 donation.

Not quite hitting the waves.... we're breaking in gently!

by Nicola Rowe

The Melton/Rutland outreach group meets fortnightly on a Friday and every now and again we like to get out and about. It was the 26th June when we all met at Rutland Water (South) and we were going to have a trip on the Rutland Belle.

The Rutland Belle takes you around Rutland Water whilst giving you a commentary about the area and the history of Rutland Water.

Joining us on the trip were group members Pete, Monique, Laura, Duncan, Chrystian and Ben. Our trips are also a good way of meeting up with past members and this time Paul met up with us.

The weather was on our side and we had a lovely trip around the water. I'm not sure how much of the commentary was listened to, as once the group gets together, it's like a gathering of the Mother's Union and there is no keeping them quiet!

Lynn leads the Way

Once the trip was over we finished the afternoon with a coffee and more chatting in the cafe.

A lovely day was had by all, so here's to planning the next trip out. Watch this space.
